

SECTION A - HISTORY

(8 Questions = 18 Marks)

1.	Water pollution caused by industries can be attributed mainly to the discharge of: (A) Organic and inorganic wastes (B) Greenhouse gases including dyes and heavy metals (C) Noise from machinery (D) Solid plastic waste only	1 M
2.	In a democratic setup, which of the following is the best approach to managing social differences and conflicts? (A) Ignoring social conflicts entirely (B) Suppressing minority voices forcibly (C) Encouraging dialogue and political negotiation (D) Allowing majority rule without safeguards	1 M
3.	Which of the following items was primarily transported from China to the West along the silk routes? (A) Gold and silver (B) Chinese silk (C) Potatoes (D) Cotton textiles	1 M
4.	According to the chapter, which activity could be used to explore the local impact of globalisation on farmers? (A) Studying the effect of imports on local farmers (B) Role-playing international trade negotiations (C) Exploring technology improvements in cities (D) Reviewing multinational corporation logos	1 M
5.	What were some government policies adopted by the Sinhala-majority in Sri Lanka and how did they contribute to ethnic conflict? OR How does economic growth under dictatorships compare with that under democracies according to the data between 1950 and 2000?	2 M
6.	Assess how the creation of linguistic states has contributed to the practice of federalism in India. OR Explain how the Right to Information (RTI) Act empowers consumers using the example of Amritha's case.	2 M

7.	Explain the significance of the Salt March as a symbol of resistance during the Civil Disobedience Movement. How did it unite different social groups, and why was salt chosen as an effective symbol? OR Discuss how democracy addresses social differences and conflicts. Provide examples of both the expected outcomes and challenges democracies face in managing social diversity.	5 M
8.	Read the following case study: Salim, a shoe manufacturer, received a large order and took loans from a leather supplier and a trader. He successfully repaid the loans after making a good profit. Swapna, a small farmer, took a loan from a moneylender, but her crop failed due to pests and despite spending on pesticides, she could not repay the loan. Her debt increased over time, forcing her to sell part of her land. Answer the following: (i) What factors contributed to the successful use of credit in Salim's case? (ii) What risks led to Swapna's debt trap? (iii) Explain how credit can have both positive and negative effects using this example.	4 M

SECTION B - GEOGRAPHY
(9 Questions = 17 Marks)

9.	Which of the following is a kharif crop commonly grown in India? (A) Wheat (B) Gram (C) Jowar (D) Barley	1 M
10.	Which of the following is NOT a function performed by political parties in a democracy? (A) Contest elections to select candidates (B) Form and run the government (C) Operate without any public participation (D) Shape public opinion through raising issues	1 M
11.	Which one of the following is NOT a basis for classifying resources? (A) On the basis of origin (B) On the basis of colour (C) On the basis of exhaustibility (D) On the basis of ownership	1 M

12.	Which of the following conservation strategies does not involve direct community participation? (A) Joint Forest Management (B) Chipko Movement (C) Beej Bachao Andolan (D) Demarcation of Wildlife Sanctuaries	1 M
13.	How do many MNCs often reduce their production costs in countries like India? (A) By increasing labour benefits for workers (B) By employing permanent workers with job security (C) By hiring workers on a temporary or flexible basis (D) By producing all components locally without imports	1 M
14.	Which of the following is NOT a key feature of federalism? (A) There are two or more levels of government. (B) The central government can unilaterally change the powers of state governments. (C) The jurisdictions of levels of government are specified in the constitution. (D) Courts have power to interpret the constitution and resolve disputes between levels of government.	1 M
15.	How did liberalisation of imports as per WTO agreement affect Ravi's capacitor manufacturing unit?	2 M
16.	Explain how print culture contributed to the growth of nationalism in India during the nineteenth century. Include examples of the role played by newspapers and books in shaping public opinion and spreading reformist ideas. OR Explain the process of resource planning in India and discuss why mere availability of resources does not guarantee development.	5 M
17.	In Meghalaya, coal mining is often done by narrow tunnels called 'rat-hole' mining. This method is illegal as per the National Green Tribunal and has environmental and health risks. (i) Explain why 'rat-hole' mining is considered hazardous to miners. (ii) What environmental impacts does mining have on local water sources? (iii) Suggest two measures that could be implemented to reduce the negative effects of mining activities in such regions.	4 M

SECTION C - POLITICAL SCIENCE

(9 Questions = 20 Marks)

18.	From where were the case histories in the Consumer Rights chapter primarily collected? (A) Scientific journals on economics (B) Newspaper clippings and consumers who fought in Consumer Disputes Redressal Commissions (C) Textbooks on world history (D) Government economic reports on exports	1 M
19.	What is the focus of globalisation as defined in the chapter? (A) Integration through cultural exchanges and tourism (B) Integration between countries through foreign trade and investments by MNCs (C) Integration of military forces between countries (D) Integration of political ideologies across countries	1 M
20.	Why was salt chosen by Mahatma Gandhi as a symbol in the Civil Disobedience Movement? (A) Because it was a luxury item consumed only by the rich (B) Because salt production was easy to control by the British authorities (C) Because salt was essential to all Indians and the tax on it symbolized British oppression (D) Because it was the only commodity with a high tax	1 M
21.	Assertion (A): The chapter emphasises the need to protect workers employed in the unorganised sector. Reason (R): Unorganised sector workers typically have formal contracts and social security benefits. (A) Both Assertion (A) and Reason (R) are true and Reason (R) is the correct explanation of Assertion (A). (B) Both Assertion (A) and Reason (R) are true but Reason (R) is not the correct explanation of Assertion (A). (C) Assertion (A) is true but Reason (R) is false. (D) Assertion (A) is false but Reason (R) is true.	1 M
22.	List two areas in which the actual outcomes of democracy are examined.	2 M

23.	Why were factories established during the industrialisation period instead of continuing production in village households?	2 M
24.	Describe the bamboo drip irrigation system used in Meghalaya and state how it helps in water conservation.	2 M
25.	Explain how democracy produces a government that is accountable, responsive, and legitimate. Include examples of mechanisms that help citizens hold the government accountable. OR Explain the system of proto-industrialisation that existed before the Industrial Revolution in Britain and discuss how the coming up of factories changed the production process.	5 M
26.	In the year 1848, revolutions led by liberal middle classes in many parts of Europe were underway. The Frankfurt Parliament convened with representatives aiming to draft a constitution for a unified German nation headed by a monarchy subject to parliamentary control. However, the King of Prussia rejected the crown offered, and the assembly was eventually disbanded. (i) What were the main goals of the liberal revolutionaries during the 1848 movement in Germany? (ii) Explain why King Friedrich Wilhelm IV rejected the crown offered by the Frankfurt Parliament. (iii) Discuss the role of women during the 1848 liberal revolutions and their position regarding suffrage.	4 M

SECTION D - ECONOMICS
(10 Questions = 20 Marks)

27.	After the abolition of the Corn Laws in Britain, which of the following occurred? (A) Food prices increased and migration decreased (B) Food prices fell and many agricultural workers lost their jobs (C) Food production in Britain increased to match imports (D) Imported food became more expensive	1 M
28.	What are demand deposits in banks? (A) Deposits that cannot be withdrawn without prior notice (B) Deposits that are only accepted in cheque form (C) Deposits that can be withdrawn at any time on demand (D) Deposits made only by government organisations	1 M

29.	Which technological advancement has most directly helped reduce transport costs and increased speed of global trade? (A) Traditional farming techniques. (B) Developments in transportation technology like container shipping. (C) Introduction of local markets. (D) Manual telegraph communication.	1 M
30.	Which of these activities is most likely to be classified under the secondary sector according to the chapter's explanation? (A) Farming in a village (B) Running a vegetable stall (C) Operating a workshop that repairs machines (D) Teaching in a school	1 M
31.	Which one of the following minerals is formed by decomposition of rocks, leaving a residual mass of weathered material? (A) a) coal (B) b) bauxite (C) c) gold (D) d) zinc	1 M
32.	Which allegorical figure represented the German nation during the 1848 revolutions? (A) Marianne (B) Britannia (C) Germania (D) Italia	1 M
33.	Considering the challenges faced by consumers in the market and the history of the consumer movement discussed, suggest two ways in which young learners can contribute actively to the consumer movement and raise awareness in their communities.	2 M
34.	Discuss how tourism acts as a trade and contributes to the economic development of India.	2 M
35.	Identify two advantages and one challenge of power sharing in a democracy.	2 M

36.	Describe how communities in India have conserved and protected forests and wildlife. Include examples of specific movements or community actions and explain how these efforts contribute to ecological sustainability. OR Discuss how rainwater harvesting is traditionally carried out in the semi-arid regions of Rajasthan and explain the significance of the underground 'tankas' in this system.	5 M
-------------------	--	------------